

European Camper Van Leader roadsurfer, Expands in the U.S. with first Florida Rental Station in Miami

November 2025: roadsurfer, the global leader in camper van and RV travel, has arrived in Florida with a new rental hub opening in Miami. Minutes from Miami International Airport (on 2736 NW 37th St.) the new location offers travelers the perfect launchpad to explore the Sunshine State and for travel around the FIFA World Cup matches next year.

To inspire customers to explore, roadsurfer has put together some exciting road trip ideas, from cruising the stunning Florida Keys, venturing along the East coast towards New York, to taking in the Everglades and Disney World. And for those travelling in June and July there is the extra excitement of the FIFA World Cup 2026 matches in Miami.

Top Florida road trip ideas

- Miami to Florida Keys loop (Miami → Key Largo → Marathon → Key West → Miami) Begin in Miami, follow the overseas highway through the Florida Keys, cross 42 bridges over turquoise waters, stopping in Key Largo, where island life slows to the rhythm of the waves, and after Marathon, the journey becomes spectacularly scenic as the road seems to float above the sea. End in Key West amid white-sand beaches and endless sunshine, best enjoyed between November and May. (7 days) Approx 330miles.

- Miami to New York (Miami → Canaveral/Space Coast → St. Augustine (A1A) → Jacksonville → Savannah → Charleston → Fredericksburg/Yorktown (US-17) → New York City) Start in Miami, follow A1A's oceanfront miles with the Atlantic by your side. Cross the Lowcountry's rivers and marshes on Highway 17, weaving together history, nature, and ocean views, and finish in New York City amid its iconic skyline. (8 - 12 days) Approx 1,300 - 1,500 miles (one way).

What you'll Experience

roadsurfer's colorful fleet consists of brand new, compact camper vans and larger RVs. Models sleep 2 - 5 people and come with a kitchenette (fridge, stove, sink), bathroom with hot shower and toilet, stationary AC/heating. The company offers unlimited mileage and a free second driver and each rental includes free extras like camping chairs and table and even a goodie bag.

To celebrate the opening of the new rental station, roadsurfer has introductory rates starting at £87 a night for a Couples Condo campervan that sleeps 2 people, based on travel in January 2026. The usual One-way Rental Fee is also waived for trips in and out of Miami until 31/12/25.

And for those planning a longer trip there is a Long Trip Discount. Travel 14+ nights and get an extra 5% off, travel 21+ nights and get an extra 10% off, or travel 28+ nights and get an extra 15% off. This is applied automatically at checkout and can be combined with other discount codes.

Already well-established in Europe, roadsurfer entered North America in 2022 and now operates nine rental stations across the Western USA and Canada. Expansion continues with New York and Dallas, set to open in 2026.
