

Don't Leave Your Four-Legged Friend Behind

Roadsurfer Encourages Pet Travel with Discounted Bookings

August 2026: roadsurfer, the world's leading campervan rental company, is making it easier than ever this year for travellers to hit the road with their beloved pets by their side with a booking discount for pets and some top tips on how best to travel with your companion in a campervan.

According to a new study* 46% of respondents to the poll said they get anxious when they leave their dog behind while on holiday. This is because of worries over issues such as their pet's eating habits and whether the animal will feel abandoned or stressed. For many pet owners, it seems a holiday simply isn't complete without their four-legged companion.

Campervan travel offers the freedom and flexibility to explore at your own pace, with plenty of opportunities for scenic walks, countryside stops and pet-friendly experiences along the way. Unlike many rental providers, roadsurfer welcomes pets onboard, whether that is dogs, cats or other pets, allowing travellers to enjoy everything from coastal escapes to countryside getaways while keeping their furry friends by their side.

Pet-friendly campervan hire can often add significant costs, but roadsurfer keeps pricing simple with a flat UK pet fee of around £120 per booking, regardless of trip length.

To celebrate International Dog Day on 26th August, roadsurfer will waive its pet fee for 48 hours on future bookings made on 26th or 27th August 2026, with no breed or size restrictions across all campervans and RVs.

With 10 years of experience of sending travellers off with their pets, roadsurfer has some tips for travelling with pets in a campervan:

- Pack familiar comforts: Bring your pet's favourite blanket, bed or toy to help them feel settled in their home on wheels.
- Travel at their pace: Take advantage of the flexibility of campervan travel by stopping for walks, water breaks and playtime whenever needed.
- Plan pet-friendly stops: Look ahead for dog-friendly campsites, beaches and walking routes to make the most of your adventure.
- Prepare a pet travel kit: Pack essentials including food, water, bowls, a lead, poo bags, towels and any medication your pet may need.

*Survey by Booking.com

*The waived pet fee applies to bookings for any travel dates, provided the booking is made on 26th or 27th August 2026. Customers will still need to add the pet fee as an extra during checkout, but it will automatically display as £0 on those two days. It's important that they still select the pet fee to receive the offer.
