German Outdoor Travel Leader roadsurfer Expands into Arizona with First Camper Van/RV Rental Location in Phoenix

Compact camper vans come fully equipped for a Western USA road trip, including unlimited miles, free second driver, one-way rentals, special deals, and low intro rates.

Los Angeles, Spring 2025 -- Camper van adventures are more popular and budget-minded than ever. Just in time to tap into the summer season, outdoor travel start-up roadsurfer is bringing their popular camper van and RV rentals to Phoenix. Offering a fleet of colorful vans from their new rental station right next to Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport, roadsurfer provides small yet fully equipped camper vans with all the comforts of a larger RV.

roadsurfer camper vans come in three models, sleeping 2 to 5 people. Each includes a kitchenette with a refrigerator, stove, and sink, plus a bathroom with a shower and toilet, as well as stationary AC/heat. Roadsurfer camper vans are dog friendly.

The vehicles' exteriors feature roadsurfer's signature colorful wave design, evoking a laid-back surfer lifestyle. Every rental comes with two camping chairs, and a camping table. Renters also receive a special goodie bag as an added perk.

With competitive introductory rates, unlimited miles, and plenty of unexpected extras, roadsurfer aims to attract both American and European road trippers eager to explore the Best of the West. With additional rental locations in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Las Vegas, Denver, Salt Lake City, and Seattle, one-way rentals are now an option.

Founded in Munich in 2016, roadsurfer has grown into a global leader, now operating 100 stations and a fleet of 10,000 vehicles across 14 European countries, the USA, and Canada. The company uses dynamic pricing, with rentals currently starting at $115 per night, and frequent discounts available on its website.
